Your policy will be effective from the date you enter UAE (as stamped on your passport) and will apply for the Validity Period stated above (number of days) provided you enter UAE within 70 days of the policy issue date shown on this certificate. If you become a UAE resident during the policy period then you will not have coverage under this policy from the issue date shown on your residency visa.

Should the need arise to extend your policy cover period as a result of extending your visa, please reach out to the agent/broker that issued your policy who will be able to arrange an extension for an additional premium. The option to extend the policy is not available if you have a 96-hour policy.
